

Killer Cover Letter “System”

Quick-Start Guide

You’ve made a wise decision to add this proven Killer Cover Letter “System” to your job-hunting toolbox. But that alone is not enough. The most important thing for you to do immediately is to start sending out Killer Cover Letters...TODAY!!

Don’t be overwhelmed by the mountain of information I’ve provided. It’s all important, but don’t be like most people and let that be an excuse that prevents you from taking action. OK?

If you spend an hour a day, you’ll be through the “System” in about a week. So definitely set aside time to learn the “System,” but there’s no reason at all you can’t send out three Killer Cover Letters today, is there? There are plenty of excuses you can make to prevent you from taking action, but there are no good reasons.

Here’s What To Do...

With the Basic “Entry Level” System, I’ve given you a fill-in-the-blank Killer Cover Letter (send this Killer Cover Letter to three employers). If you ordered the Deluxe “Middle Management” System you’ve already got three fill-in-the-blank Killer Cover Letters.

All you have to do is fill in your name and phone number and the hiring manager’s name. Fill in your name and phone number, right now. Then, delete any parts of the letters that refer to your Killer Resume online. You can add that in a few days (if you’ve got the Platinum “Executive” System), fair enough? To upgrade, please visit:

You already have a resume, right? Just use that one for now. You’ll have your own Killer Resume ready shortly, but for now go ahead and use the one you already have.

So in a matter of minutes, you’ve got three Killer Cover Letters ready to go. All you need now is three positions to apply for. Get your Sunday paper and circle three classified ads in the employment section that look appealing. If you need to, go to your local library to get last Sunday’s employment classified ads.

You could also use the Internet or the phone book. Now add the hiring manager’s name to the letters. If you can’t find it, you’ll have to address it “Dear Sir or Madam:” for now. That’s OK. It’s better to send out these letters than nothing at all.

Here's the point: In order to win the game, you must be in the game. Right? And the game here is getting a job. If you're not sending out Killer Cover Letters, you're not in the game. And you can't win a game you're not playing. Can you?

Now address your envelopes, put a stamp on them, and put them in the mail. If you've got a fax number, send a fax. If you've got an email address, type your Killer Cover Letter into an email and send it. Just do it!

Don't "think about it." The world is full of people sitting on their butts "thinking about it." And guess where they'll be tomorrow? Next week? Next month? Next year? That's right. They'll be sitting around "thinking about it."

And they'll probably be complaining about their situation, blaming other people or circumstances; completely oblivious to the real reason their situation hasn't improved – because they won't get off their butt and do something.

Don't be one of those people. They're whiners. The fact that you're reading this Quick Start Guide proves you're a winner, not a whiner. Right?

Think about it this way: If your life depended on it, could you get four letters in the mail today? Of course you could. OK, your life doesn't depend on it, but maybe your livelihood does. There must be some reason you invested in this "System," right?

Or how about this: If you could make tens of thousands of dollars by sending out a few letters everyday, would you do it? Who wouldn't? Think about it. How much will your new job be worth to you? Tens of thousands of dollars, right? So you really can make tens of thousands of dollars by sending out a few letters everyday. So what are you waiting for?

After you put your four Killer Cover Letters in the mail, spend an hour studying the "System." And spend an hour a day for a week learning the "System." In just a few days, you'll be amazed at how much you've learned and how quickly you can implement this powerful information into your job search. I recommend you start with my Special Report, "The Killer Cover Letter System," which explains the "System" in more detail.

Wow! Look at all you've accomplished in such a short period of time. Feels great, doesn't it? Hey, you've just demonstrated some great characteristics you can use to sell yourself. You've shown the ability to make a decision and take action. You also make great use of your time and are focused on achieving your goals. Potential employers are going to love those qualities, aren't they?

You're off to a great start. Keep up the good work. And I'd like to hear your success story. Please send it to me. Fair enough?

To Your Extreme Success,
